Originally named The Five Bells in 1720, it became The Six Bells in 1749 with a new bell in St Laurence Church, & finally The Eight Bells in 1841.

The Eight Bells has been part of the community over many generations, a tradition that we are proud to continue to uphold... you never really own a pub, you just take care of it.

Our menu is built on fresh, local ingredients; we let the quality of our produce & our producers shine through in every plate & glass.

Sides ~ £6 each
